

career insight

An exclusive preview to your professional future

Considering accounting?

Allen, Gibbs & Houlik, L.C. brings you Career Insight. It's a chance for you to see what REAL accounting is like, behind the scenes. Think of it as insight into the accounting and business world for college students.

Who's going?

Talented college students with promising leadership qualities. We especially look for those who are team players, hard workers, initiators and most importantly, future leaders.

What do you get?

- Networking with peers & professionals
- Real-world experience
- Learn about public vs. private accounting
- Speakers discussing leadership and client service
- Discussion of what accounting and tax services are really like
- Discover your strengths

Why AGH?

At AGH, all employees — from interns to execs — have real responsibility, do meaningful work and are challenged daily.

When is it?

8:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.
Friday, May 12, 2017
Application deadline: April 28, 2017

Applicants should be students enrolled in an accredited college and considering an accounting degree.

Who
are you?

University or community college attending:

Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Email: _____

Daytime phone: () _____

Tell us more.

If you have a résumé or would like to tell us more about yourself, attach the information to this application. Please fill in the following:

Your major (if decided): _____

Your career objectives (if decided): _____

References

List a professional or educational reference.

Name of reference: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Relationship to you: _____

Daytime phone: () _____

Application
deadline:

April 28, 2017

Send completed application by mail or email to:

Jena Lysen,
Allen, Gibbs & Houlik, L.C.,
301 N. Main St., Suite 1700
Wichita, KS 67202
Jena.Lysen@aghlc.com

Questions? Email Jena or call 316.291.4179